Admission Policy:

Redding School of the Arts exists to provide those students in grades kindergarten through eighth grade who have an interest in the visual and performing arts with skills for the 21st century, thereby enabling them to become literate, self motivated and life long learners who appreciate, enjoy, and respect the visual and performing arts. Admission requirements are as follows:

- Students will be considered for admission without regard to ethnicity, national origin, gender or achievement level.
- Preference will be given to siblings of currently enrolled students and to children of staff who have an interest in the visual and performing arts.
- Student must agree to follow attendance and behavioral standards outlined in the Student/Parent Handbook.
- Parent/Guardian must guarantee that the information represented in the application and signed parent agreement is accurate. If the information is misrepresented the child will be subject to dismissal.
- Students entering Redding School of the Arts must be in good standing academically and behaviorally at their current or previous school. Attendance must meet RSA’s attendance standard with no more than 5 unexcused absences, not more than ten total absences and less than ten tardies. Ten or more tardies is considered excessive. Students will not be admitted to RSA with 10 or more absences, 5 unexcused absences, or excessive tardies.
- Students with SARB contracts will be expected to complete the terms of their contract before being considered for admittance to RSA.
- Students must have passing grades in all classes from their current school.
- Students demonstrate and/or are currently pursuing an interest in the visual or performing arts

Attendance at Redding School of the Arts is a choice. Class attendance and promptness is required. If my child does not meet the admission requirements and parameters I understand that my child will be required to return to their district of residence. I also understand that if information on this application is false or is misrepresented and is discovered after admittance to Redding School of the Arts, my child will be dismissed immediately and returned to their district of residence.
