Treasure Books

Our class was given the opportunity to write and publish our own book. Your student has been working very hard on their page and picture for their part of the book. Please read the Treasure Book Flyer that came home today for information on how to order a hardbound book for your family!

Lewis & Clark ~ Civil War Theme Day

The next theme day is almost upon us. The Theme Day committee could use your help. They need the following items sent in for crafts: tin juice can lids, tin cans(soup, tuna, cat/dog food, coffee), oatmeal containers, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  gallon juice/milk containers. Be thinking about a costume for your child to wear. The theme day takes place at Anderson River Park. You will be dropping off your student by 7:55 and picking them up at 12:45. This will be another exciting day for RSA!

Shasta High Musical Cinderella

This Wednesday is the production of Cinderella. The show will begin at 2:00 and will end between 4:30-5:00. Your child can be picked up in the classroom when the show is over. When you come to pick up your student please park in the lower lot because there will be many other schools attending with their cars and buses.

Field Trip-Shasta Dam

On Tuesday, May 12 our class will be led through the Shasta Dam on a guided tour. When the tour is over we will enjoy our sack lunches in the park overlooking the lake.

Field Trip-Old Shasta State Historic Park

Our class has been invited to join Mr. Hatch and Mr. Grooms on a tour of Old Shasta State Historic Park on Thursday, May 14. We will rotate classes touring the museum, the ruins, Litsch Store, Blumb Bakery, and the cemetery. We will end the trip with a picnic in the park. The items for the picnic lunch have been divided between the 3 classes. Mr. Hatch's class will provide salads and chips. Mr. Grooms' class will provide drinks and desserts. Our class will provide hot dogs, buns, condiments, paper plates, napkins and forks. If you can help with any of these items please send in the portion below. This day should be a lot of fun!
